The President's Notes

This month has been very busy with yard work and has not allowed for very much quilting. One of my favorite daily activities is to check to see what new blooms have opened. After this last year, I need to see the colors only Mother Nature can supply.

Are you working on your registrations for the quilt show? They may be turned in at the June 8 meeting, the night meeting on June 10 or postmarked no later than June 12. Don't forget your items for the boutique. Each member is asked to donate one large or 3 small items or $15.00.

A big shout out to Bonita Flesher who has served as the Sunshine chair for almost two years. This is one of the behind the scene committees that mean a lot to the members when they are celebrating birthdays, have health issues and/or other personal issues. Thank you to Bonita for getting the cards so organized and for sending out the cards to the members.

A reminder to the committee chairs, if you have a report to be given at the June meeting, please send me an email or text. The goal is to keep the meeting as short as possible to allow more time for the BLOSSOM class (Basic Lessons on Stitching some Outstanding Materials).

As we prepare to end another year, members of the Board of Directors and committee chairs, please start thinking about your end of year report. Once you have completed your review of your committee for 2020/2021, please give a copy to Peggy Knippenberg and Susan Holler.

Until next month, happy stitching

Susan

NIGHT GUILD NEWS: May meeting

ACQG Night Guild met on May 13. Susan Mogan walked us through the ins and outs of color theory, teaching us about tints, hues and the way to use the color wheel to help with color selection. We had 12 members in attendance.

We will meet at the Spring Hill Baptist Activity Center on Thursday, June 10th at 6:30.

MAY WORKSHOPS

I hope everyone had fun doing their grapes and leaves or butterflies in Mark Sherman's class in May. I am waiting on the basting spray to arrive so I can finish and then frame. If you finish your project bring it to the June meeting.

There are no workshops scheduled at this time. I am not sure if it would be best to wait until after the Quilt Show. If we do anything I was thinking of a sew day for QOV and one for donation quilts. Let me know what you might be interested in for the rest of the year.

Ann Singleton 251-377-2781.

BOOK CLUB:

Book Club met after the May ACQG meeting. There were 7 participants which included Amy Reid, a visiting PhD student. We had an interesting discussion about Amy's observations in other locations. We talked about our April book choice, "The Promise Sisters", and look forward to this month's selection. The book chosen for June is "Round Robin" by Jennifer Chiaverini. Book club members have been meeting at Jason's Deli, after our guild meetings and after eating our Jason Deli lunch, at about 1:00.

ART GUILD

Art Group met on Tuesday May 25th with an attendance of 19 members. Projects for the upcoming year were discussed. Susan Mogan presented ideas and examples. Members will complete a form showing their interest in the suggested categories.

Anne Godwin, Marsha Hodges, and Anne Rose demonstrated embroidery stitches and techniques. Further practice and instructions were given by the teachers. Next month will be instructions on embellishing your projects.

Susan Mogan showed an example of a pin cushion and supplies available for members to make using the embroidery techniques. The pin cushions will be donated to the Quilt Show for the Boutique. This group is always looking for new ideas and projects, broaden your horizons and join us.
