March 2022
Volume 43, Issue 8

Machine Piecing Class: The next machine piecing class will meet on March 2, 2022 from 1 to 4 p.m. at SpringHill Baptist activities center .

Programs: Andrew Lee is an award-winning quilter and combat veteran known as CombatQuilter. He is a 3 time combat veteran with 19 years of combined military service. Andrew has created multiple Quilts of Valor and has presented them to fellow veterans all over the country. We are honored to have this talented veteran speak to our guild March 8th. His workshop will take place after the meeting at 1:00 at Regency Church. April could be a great month to learn different ways to applique. If you have a technique to show the guild, let Linda Flores know about it! Needle turn, freezer paper, back stitching, stabilizer, machine applique, plus others. Let's learn from each other! Contact Linda Flores at lambflores@bellsouth.net or text message (251)689-8573 to say YES I CAN!

Workshops: March 8, 2022 - "The Combat Quilter Tips & Tricks $10 : 1-4 pm in Regency Fellowship Hall. Andrew Lee will be doing a Lecture/Demo on Efficient Sewing, Binding, Piecing, Tricks & Tips you'll love to learn! You can still sign up the day of the meeting, just bring your notepad and $10...This will be FUN! April 19, 2022- Creative Free Form Embroidery Sampler; Teacher: Sarah Watson 10 am-1 pm. Learn to incorporate a variety of traditional embroidery stitches into a free form embroidery without following a pattern. You will learn how different types of thread can achieve different results. You'll learn embellishments, and way to be expressive in your hand embroidery. $35 includes kit, you just bring scissors! (kit: different kinds of threads, hoop, needles, instruction booklet.). MARCH MEETING IS THE CUT-OFF FOR SIGN UP FOR THIS WORKSHOP! Nina Clotfelter 251-377-5523

ninaclotfelter@gmail.com

Resolutions: Thank you everyone that has turned a card in. I will take in one more month at March meeting, to give everyone a chance to participate.

Yvonne Taylor 251-422-1795 happyquilter247@aol.com

Night Guild: Our March 10 program will be an "I Found A Heart" presentation by Nina Clotfelter at Christ United Methodist Church. Alan Farmer; alan.farmer82@gmail.com 251-463-5398

Exchange Block: March's meeting is the last time house blocks can be purchased. I have about twelve kits still to be purchased. I hope that everyone who wants to participate in the exchange block program will purchase a block and return it by April's meeting. The cost for each kit is $1.00. The kit consists of the fabric for the roof and the background fabric. The purchaser must provide the house fabric. There are two different houses in six different colors. If kits have been purchased, please try and complete them by the March meeting so that I can divide them into quilt bundles. Each quilt will consist of sixteen blocks. If everyone returns the completed blocks, seven quilts will be given. I appreciate everyone who has participated in the exchange block program. If you have won quilts, please make them and display them at Show and Tell. Half of the fun is to see the completed projects. Georgia McCain 251-689-1393 amccain52@gmail.com

Retreat Dates: Retreat Dates are August 25 - 28, 2022; Sign-up begins in April. Questions? Contact Susan Garrett susan.garrett@att.net or 251-599-4179

GSQA Meeting: The GSQA quarterly meeting will be held in Mobile on April 23. April 22 will be a GSQA workshop with Judy Gauthier. Listen for more information and your opportunity to be involved. Bonnie Johnson of Programs for the Aug 2022-July 2023 term. This person is responsible for scheduling the program for each month's meeting. It comes with a substantial budget to pay the speaking and travel fees for the presenters brought in, but programs can also be done by guild members or other regional quilters/teachers. Many incredible national teachers are now doing live streaming lectures, which saves on travel expenses, so if we can figure out the technology for this it really opens up the possibilities of people who can do programs for us. You'll need to attend 4 board meetings per year, and if the by-laws proposed revisions are approved, you'll fill in for the president in their absence. This is a great opportunity to impact the kinds of programming the guild offers, and to help build enthusiasm and energy - please consider volunteering for this very important job! Contact Susan Mogan with questions at smogan1@comcast.net or 251-458-0246.

NEEDED: a new Vice-President

March 2022: President Notes

I've been so excited and pleased at the ideas for the guild that various members are coming up with! I've received some fabulous ones, like: greeting your pew mates at the beginning of the meeting (Bonnie Johnson), a walking foot quilting class (Bonita Flesher), a workshop attendance punch card with a prize after a certain number of workshops (Linda Flores), staying at the church for lunch and socializing between the March meeting and the workshop that afternoon (Nancy Williams), having greeters at the door for meetings, pairing new members with an established guild member as a buddy, and more. I love seeing the creative juices flowing, and the ideas have not only been great ones, but they're also easy to implement for the most part so I'll be working with various people to get as many of these ideas rolling as we can. Keep them coming!

As you may know, Linda Flores will be finishing out her term as VP Programs in July and we'll need someone to fill that position. Linda has done such a great job and we're sorry to lose her, but she's ready to move on to other things. There is a more detailed description of what the VP Programs position entails in the newsletter, so if you think you might be willing to fill this job please read that over, and feel free to call me with questions.

I'll also need three people to be the nominating committee for that position in the event we don't have a volunteer, so if you'd be willing to be on that please let me know. Here's an incentive: if you're on the committee you can't be asked to fill the position. The proposed by-laws revisions have been approved by the board and will be emailed to the entire guild for you to look them over. At the March meeting, I'll just be asking people for questions or comments about any of them, and then we'll formally vote on them at the April meeting. This way we won't take too much time in March since we have a guest presenter, and April's meeting will also go faster. Most of the proposed revisions are minor and are either to clarify something or are an update based on current practices, but those changes that are more than are clearly presented along with the reasons the by-laws committee felt the change was desirable. As I said in January, my goal for the year is to get our energy and momentum back, and I can already feel that starting to happen, so thanks to all of you who are contributing to it!!

Happy National Quilting Month, Susan

The Magic Herringbone workshop was a big success!! There was a crowd there. We sewed, visited, ate lunch, sewed and visited some more. Thank you, Candy Snipes.

It's such a happiness when good people get together.

Jane Austen

KUDOS

Susan Mogan has 2 quilts currently showing in the AQS Daytona Beach contest, 1 that has been accepted into the AQS Branson quilt show in March, and 2 accepted into the AQS Paducah quilt show in April.

Keep Up-to-date With ACQG Activities

Resolutions: Yvonne Taylor is organizing and recording Resolutions in 2022. She will take your resolutions through the March meeting.

Ways and Means Committee: A total of $82.00 was raised for ACQG.

Library: The featured library item this month is Quilts of Valor, A 50 State Salute. Each state has a represented quilt. ACQG member Joyce Reed has a quilt pictured in this book. We will soon be trying to have the library in the lobby for more availability to browse prior to the meeting. Ann Hetrick 251-533-9365; annhetrick@comcast.net

Child Advocacy Fund: SA $600 check was presented to Elaine Henderson from Child Advocacy at the February meeting. I think that was a record THANKS to all you generous members of the Guild. There was an interview by Megan Mackie of WKRG. So far this calendar year we have collected about $40. Our goal will be $500 (or more) thanks to your generosity. Sandy Purvis 251-422-0968 sandypurvis1@gmail.com

Membership Report: At the February meeting, 54 Members were present; 4 Visitors; 1 Renewed; 1 Joined Bennie Johnson 305-325-0609; bjoh283070@aol.com

Web Site: Those that have new information for the web site contact me by text or email. As information changes it needs to be posted. It is essential that Programs and Workshops to be kept up to date. Peggy Stone 251-599-3180 spgstone770@bellsouth.net

QOV: Thank you all so much to the 20+ quilters who came to help us on national sew date last month. We have many finished or nearly finished quilt tops as a result. We also got labels put on 9 tops and one person got the binding added to another quilt. 6 pillowcases have been finished for our group. If you took a project home to finish please bring it to me when it is complete. I have new backings to pair with tops as they are ready for Linda to quilt for us. Thanks to Linda who gave me back 6 quilts today ready for binding. If you have given me a finished top and want to bind it, see me to pick it up. Special thanks to Karen Gordon who is doing a presentation at a UDC meeting while I am out of town. Thank you all for all you do for our veterans.

Yearbook: If there are any corrections that need to be made to the current year book, please email me. susan.garrett@att.net

Night Guild: Night Guild met on February 10 at the home of Heike Roosen. Heike showed how to prepare t-shirts and make them into quilts. She also did a demonstration of Martelli products. There were 14 people in attendance. (We're very grateful to Heike for her hospitality and will miss her when she moves this fall). Our March 10 program will be an "I Found A Heart" presentation by Nina Clotfelter at Christ United Methodist Church.

BOOK CLUB: Due to Andrew Lee's workshop, book club will be discussing "The Persian Pickle Club" on Thursday, March 10. Thursday is Block Party at Springhill Baptist, 10:00-12:00. "So" after we "sew", we'll go out for lunch and discuss the book. What a great day to join friends hand sewing, lunch, and books! Linda Flores 251-689-8573 lambflores@bellsouth.net

ART QUILTERS: Art Quilters met Feb. 22nd. There were 17 members present including 1 visitor. Show and Tell was interesting with Blue Vase Quilts; Mystery quilts; Slice quilt and personal projects. No-tan wall hanging, using Very-Peri and white, was started. Peggy Knippenberg pknip2020@gmail.com 251-591-0805

GSQA: AZALEA CITY QUILTERS' GUILD is sponsoring the Gulf States Quilting Association April Quarterly Meeting, not just GSQA/ACQG members., we are ALL hostesses! You do NOT have to be a GSQA member to donate to or attend this meeting. In fact, it is your opportunity to see GSQA in action. Believe me, the class on Friday (4/22) will be awesome and the teacher, Judy Gauthier, will also present at the Saturday Session. Show and Tell at the end is the frosting on the cake!! SO, MARCH is when we will start sign ups for helpers for the Saturday, April 23, 2022, meeting. We need 2 more sit down helpers, 4 more to help hand out door prizes sometime during the meeting and 9 Greeters. Helpers will need to be at Regency Church at 9:00 a.m. There will be a very short meeting after the April ACQG Meeting in the Atrium to discuss your stations. Please consider wearing a top that is an azalea color or an ACQG Tee shirt. I will also have ASK ME buttons for you. Peggy Stone will be in charge of the refreshments. We will not be serving lunch just snacks. March will also be the last time you can donate four (4) azalea colored fat quarters for the GSQA Rosebud Luncheon Basket. We are doing an AZALEA BASKET this year. Elaine Williams has donated an Azalea Trail Maids Cookbook, Joyce Reed and Ann Hetrick went in on 2 yards of a wonderful Hoffman fabric and many of you have supplied money for the basket and more fabric. Fat quarters plus!!!!

Bonnie Johnson robojo2@aol.com. 251-421-1409

Quilt Show: The Quilt Show Board passed that there should be a Special Display Chairman. She will communicate with the Hanging Chairman and those over special displays (QOV, Charity, or any other special displays that may occur). Joyce Reed accepted the board offer to hold this position. Peggy Stone

Minutes: 2/8/2022 General Meeting

Welcome and Opening Remarks. Susan Mogan, President, Azalea City Quilters' Guild, opened the monthly meeting at 1005. She welcomes the Guild and several guests visiting this morning. Susan asked everyone to look around and greet the people around them. She said Bonnie Johnson suggested we do this, to introduce each other to other guild members and visitors. Susan said that was a suggestion to help make ACQG a little better.

Inspirational. Ashley Fleming was not able to attend this month's meeting. Bonnie Johnson offered the inspirational. She spoke of what February 2022 was and that there is many important days and celebration during February – Black History Month, American Heart Month, Friendship Month, Embroidery Month, and National Grapefruit Month. Along this many days and week – Groundhog Day, Valentine's Day, Galentine Day, to celebrate your "gal" friends and President's Day. This week is National Flirting Week, Jello Week, and Congenital Heart Defects Week and Freelance Writers Appreciation Week. Today happens to be National Kite Flying Day, along with National Boy Scouts Day. February is a month that recognized relationships in all forms, which is what makes this Guild so meaningful. The friendship we have because we have something in common – the love of quilting. She spoke of an email she received from her son, who is now in Jerusalem. She asked how long ago was the first quilt was made? Several people asked before the birth of Jesus. Where did early designed for quilt squares come from? Bonnie's son sent her a picture of a tile from the Temple Mount in Jerusalem. She showed a picture made with half square triangle, which look like a quilt block. Bonnie said a prayer for the members of ACQG who were not here today. She requested guidance with our love of quilting and the friendship we have through quilting.

Special Presentation to the Child Advocacy Center. Sandy Purvis and Diane Engels introduce Elaine Henderson from the Child Advocacy Center. Sandy presented a check for $600.00 from the ACQG. Diane Engels presented 25 quilts made by members of the ACQG for the children in need from the Child Advocacy Center. Ms. Henderson thanked and the ACQG for the donation and explained what the Child Advocacy Center does in Mobile. Diane Engels presented the 25 quilts to the Center for the children. WKRG Channel 5 was present to document and quilt donations. Diane spoke with Channel 5 and the segment will be shown on the 4 P. M. News on Channel 5.

Prayer Request for members of ACQG. Susan Mogan said there are several members who have requested we keep them in our prayers – Lee Patrick and her family; Debbie Vice and her husband; and Susan Garret's granddaughter was hurt on her horse and will be needing several surgeries. She asked if there was anyone else who needed our prayers. Individuals from the floor requested prayers for Yvonne's husband's brother passed away; Sandy Griffith has pneumonia; Ashley Fleming's husband is having surgery; Patsy (charter member) will be having another surgery; Bonnie Zabzdyr is able to have weight on her leg and will be coming home this week from rehab; and Peggy Cromartie's granddaughter.

Meet & greet. Susan Mogan said that she spotlighted three members of the Azalea City Quilters' Guild each month. Georgia McCain – a member of the Guild for 9 years and has been quilting for 20 years. Georgia has held several offices within ACQG. She is currently working as the "Exchange Block" Chair. Likes hand quilting. Her superpower is organization and "reading people".

Ramona Thompson – a member of the Guild for 11 years and has been quilting for 12 years. She has held several positions with ACQG. She likes traditional quilting and quilting for friends. Her personal superpower is being "detail" orientated.

Linda Flores – a member of the Guild for 2 years and has been quilting 2+ years. She is currently Vice President Program Chair. She likes traditional quilting, scrappy quilting and does long arming for Quilts of Valor. Her favorite quilting experience is she likes to do "a lot of swearing when things don't go right". Her personal superpower is planning fun parties.

General Announcements. Susan asked if there was any corrections or additions to last month's minutes that were published in the Nine-Patch Newsletter. No additions or corrections. Nina Clotfelter motion to accept the minutes as published. Anne Godwin seconded the motion. The motion to accept the minutes as published passed. Susan said that the Donation Quilts need to be a completed finished quilt. She said that the Donation Quilt Chair is a Diane Engels, who does everything herself. If she receives just a quilt top, she will need to finish it herself. She doesn't really have a budget, just $50.00 a year from ACQG. It would be appreciated if you do a quilt for the Donation Program, to please make it a completed quilt. The By-Law changes are completed, and they are out to the Board for approval. The by-laws should be ready to present to the Guild at the March meeting. Susan will email a copy to everyone, once they are approved by the Board. Susan Garret asked that we do not do the "Off-Year" Quilt this year. It is almost finished and is such a beautiful pattern. Susan Garrett feels that we would not get the full benefit of the "Off-Year" Quilt since we will be starting to show our 2023 Quilt Show Quilt in September 2022. The Quilt Show Committee met and agreed to table the Off-Year Quilt. Susan Mogan said that if you need to send something out by email to the entire Guild to use the ACQG2018@yahoo.com to Susan Garret. The ACQG received a thank you card from Trisha Ringer for our thoughts and prayer in this difficult time for her family.

Treasurer's Report. Susie Olsen presented the January 2021 Treasurer's Report. A copy will be in the Nine Patch News.

Membership. Bennie Johnson reported that 54 members were present at today's meeting. We had four visitors. One requested to joined ACQG.

Programs. Linda Flores announced that the book club will meet today at McAlister's Deli on Airport Blvd. to discuss the book – "Confession from the Quilting Circle". The book for March will be the "Persian Pickle Club" by Sandra Dallas. It is based on women quilting during the depression. The Quilts of Valor strip poker blocks were used during the National Sew Day for Quilts of Valor last Saturday. The finished quilts will be shown in the future. Next month we will have Andrew Lee, the Combat Quilter. He will be speaking at the Guild meeting, and we will have an added program following the regular Guild meeting next month where he will show us special tips and techniques. Linda spoke about getting the applique program started again, possibly in April. She is asking if anyone would like to teach/show how to do applique techniques in a Round Robin type workshop after the April meeting to please contact her. This workshop would consist of 5 to 6 stations, with each station teaching a different technique on appliqueing lasting 15 to 20 minutes. Please contact Linda if you are interested in teaching or learning an applique technique. She said Sarah Watson from Cloud 9 Art Gallery is here today to talk about fabric designs.

Quilt Show. Peggy Stone asked that the 2023 Quilt Show budget, which should have been presented at this meeting be postponed to the March meeting. She said that some areas within the budget needed to be reviewed and changed. Several areas needed to increase to the cost of supplies. The revised budget will be published in the 9-Patch Newsletter. Susan Mogan said that to follow the By-Laws, which said the Quilt Show Budget needs to be approved 15 months prior to the show, we need to pass a motion to this effect. Susan asked for a motion to postpone the approval of the Quilt Show budget to March 2022. Janet Beaverstock motion to postpone the approval of the 2023 Quilt Show Budget to March 2022. Suzy Olsen seconded the motion. All approved. The motion was passed.

Workshops. Nina Clotfelter announces the upcoming workshops. The February 2022 Workshop will be held on February 15. Candy Snipes, an ACQG member, will be teaching the "Magic Herringbone" quilt pattern. Everyone that has signed up for this workshop should have received an email saying what to bring and what to expect. In March 2022, the workshop will be "Tips & Tricks" (improving your quilting skills) with Andrew Lee, the Combat Quilter. It will be held after the March meeting. In April, Sarah Watson, who is the guest speaker today, will be coming back in April to show us different embroidery techniques. There is a $35.00 fee for this workshop, which will include a kit. The only thing individuals will need to bring are scissors. Nina spoke of having Barbara Black from Huntsville, AL, a national quilting instructor, come to Mobile to do a program and workshop. She does the quilts and blocks for the "Quilt Show". The workshop will be an all-day workshop called "Charming Sampler". She'll be teaching four blocks that can be made from charm squares, along with precision piecing. The cost will be $50.00. Nina said it is expensive bringing national instructors in. ACQG is paying some of the cost, but not all. The sign up will be started in March. Susan Mogan said she is very excited about getting a national instructor. This is how we keep the momentum going in the Guild and get people excited about quilting. The Guild is paying approximately $2,000 of the cost for this workshop, but she feels we need something like this.

Guild Challenge. Janet Beaverstock said it has been 2 years since the last challenge. She is challenging the members about what we think about the last 2 years – the home. This year theme is "Home is Where the Heart Is". The challenge is to do anything you think of as home. What do you think about what your home is – your past home or a future home. It needs to be quilted, bound and have a sleeve on it. It will be shown at the 2023 Quilt Show. The dimension should be no more than 30 X 30. It should have a heart on it somewhere on the quilt. You need to pick what is in your heart. It is a very open combination type quilt. It will be due at the August 2022 meeting.

Library. Ann Hetrick. Explained what the library is. She has two new books – "Learn to Paper Piece" for beginners and "Visual Coloring", this will inspire you to use different colors. Susan Mogan stated the library is underutilized, starting next month, out in the Lobby prior to the monthly meetings, we will showcasing books from the Library. Start looking for books you may be able to use in your quilting.

Machine Piecing Class. MaryAnn Logsdon sated the class will be meeting tomorrow. Due to repairs to the elevator at Springhill Baptist Activity Center, the class will be on the first floor.

Gulf States Quilters Association (GSQA). Bonnie Johnson thanked everyone who brought fat quarters for the GSQA luncheon. She said we have 6 or 7 ladies who will have quilts in the GSQA Quilt Show. We need to support them and go to the show. Bonnie also said the ACQG will be hosting the GSQA meeting on April 22 and 23 in Mobile, Alabama. This is not just for GSQA members, even if you are not a member you need to support this due to ACQG hosting this meeting. She will have a signup sheet for volunteers. We will need volunteers for being hostesses at the registration area. Also needed people to help with the door prizes. Judy Gauthier will be conducting the workshop scrap quilts. (Continued on next page)

Resolutions for 2022. Yvonne Taylor said today is the deadline for resolutions. She has about 24 people signed up. You can still email her with your 2022 Resolutions from members. If you would like, you may email your resolutions to her at happyquilter247@aol.com.

Donations Quilts. Diane Engels thanked everyone for making the quilts for Child Advocacy. She read a letter she requested from Project Linus thanking ACQG. They also sent a letter of appreciation to ACQG for the quilts.

Ways and Means (Un-birthday gifts). Lee Patrick stepped down from Chairman. Sharon Morris will be the new Chairman. Seven un-birthday gifts were received for this month's birthdays. A total of $82.00 was raised for ACQG. The winners of today's gifts were Kathy Brooks; Nancy Williams; Annette Oliver; Sharon Nader; Darlene Boyd; Lamoyne Keenlyne; and Janean McCawley.

Show & tell. Quilts were shown by Bonnie Johnson, Joyce Reed, Carolyn Kimble; Diane Engels, Melanie Stokley; Ramona Thompson; Reba Perkins; Ann Hetrick; and Janean McCawley.

Special Program. Linda Flores introduced Sarah Watson a fabric designer from Fairhope, AL. She designs fabrics for Cloud 9 Art Gallery. Sarah explained how she designed the specialty fabrics, what is the process about getting an idea for a fabric from design to finished product at the stores.

Country Store. Susan Mogan announced that the Country Store will be held after the meeting in the fellowship hall and invited all to come and see if they were interested in anything that might be for sale by other members of the Guild.

Susan Mogan asked if there was any other business that needed to be addressed. No one said anything. She adjourned the meeting at 1135.

Guild Challenge

The Guild Challenge for 2022 was announced at the February meeting. “Home Is Where The Heart Is” is the theme. Entries will be shown at the August 9th general meeting. The theme may be presented in any quilting style – pieced, applique, both turned and raw edge, or paper pieced. Music may be used as your inspiration: eg. Sweet Home Alabama, Country Roads, Homeward Bound, etc.

Each entry should be no larger than 30 x 30 inches. It should be quilted and bound with a 4 inch sleeve for hanging in the 2023 quilt show. There should be a heart somewhere on the front of the entry. It can be quilted, appliqued, or in the block design.

Members attending the August meeting will vote on their favorite entry. Three prizes will be awarded. All entries will be in the Challenge Category at the quilt show. Traditionally, there is no hanging charge for Challenge entries.
