Machine Piecing Class: . We will meet on May 4, 2022 from 1PM to 4PM at Spring Hill Baptist church. MaryAnn Logsdon 251-490-8317 malogsdon1@gmail.com

Programs: If you have any strip poker blocks you would like to be made into a quilt, please give them to Linda Flores and we can finish up this fun project for kids and vets. The next learning adventure is the "Paint Chip Challenge". Paint chips were passed out to each of you hoping to get you into colors and techniques you may not always use! You can use all 8 colors or use just 3 of them. Any size, style, or design! Maybe some embroidery that you learned at Sarah Watson's workshop? Show off your imagination at the May meeting. June's program will be the "Combat Quilter". We can learn so much from this talented and respected veteran. With yards of gratitude, Linda Flores. Linda Flores at lambflores@bellsouth.net or text message (251)689-8573

Workshops: May 11, 9:30-4:30 Beginning Free Motion Quilting. $45 plus $10 supply fee; Teacher: Nina Clotfelter. Where: At Regency in Gym; You'll learn ALL the basics and more! You'll learn how much fun free motion quilting on your domestic machine can be! We REALLY do start at the beginning! You'll come away with a newfound confidence and a sampler you made you can refer to for many different designs...that you'll create! Come on...let's have fun! June 14, 1pm-4pm. Combat Quilter lecture/demo on Tips and Tricks $10 Teacher: Andrew Lee. Where: Regency Fellowship Hall, Andrew Lee will share all kinds of tips and tricks for you to try at home on your next project. Andrew has found quilting and he just can't stop! Bring your Lunch and pad and pencil and be ready for this fun afternoon! (You don't have to bring your lunch, but it might just make things easier.) July 19 - 9:30am - 3:30pm - $10 - Scrap Quilts with Diane Engles. You'll learn 2 different scrap quilts, dryer sheet quilt and quilt as you go strip quilt. You should be able to complete one of them during class. Nina Clotfelter 251-377-5523 ninaclotfelter@gmail.com

Night Guild: Night Guild's next meeting will be May 12 at Christ United Methodist Church. Candy Snipes will be presenting a program on the Magic Herringbone. Alan Farmer Alan.farmer82@gmail.com 251-463-5398

QOV: It's that time of year again. Our dues as members of Stars over Mobile are due by the end of May. If you can, visit QOVF.org to pay your annual dues to support the national QOV group. (Look for "the About QOVF tab then choose FAQs to find a spot to pay your $10 dues under membership questions.) If you can not pay online be sure to have cash for me in an envelope with your name on it at the May meeting so that I can mail them all in together, or mail to me ASAP: Joyce Reed, 1505 Ridgeland Rd E, Mobile 36695. On May 21, Saturday, we will gather at Battleship Park to promote QOV as a part of Blue Star Salute Day. We also have a QOV presentation scheduled for 12:30 that day at the Park. We will be there from 9 a.m. until 1 p.m. and would love to have you join us for any part of that day. Weather permitting. Joyce Reed 251-454-1466.

Exchange Blocks: Thank you to all the members who supported the house exchange blocks. Because of exceptional support, I was able to give away seven, 16 block quilts. I can't wait to see them. Please bring them to show and tell at the guild meeting and share with everyone. The exchange block for April through August is called "Bonnie's Spring Tulip". I made 50 blocks for the April meeting and sold all of them before the meeting started at 10:00. I will have 62 block kits at the May meeting. Please be prepared to buy. The cost is $1.00 per kit. Each kit has the background material and the leaf material along with the pattern. You will supply the tulip material using pastel spring fabric for the tulip. The block is very easy. I hope we have good participation for this exchange block as well. The quilts kits will be given away at the August meeting. Georgia McCain 251-689-1393 amccain52@gmail.com

Retreat Dates: Retreat is August 25 - 28, 2022. Send your registration to Susan Garrett 10824 Lott Cemetery Rd, Chunchula Alabama, 36521 or hand to me at meetings. Susan Garrett susan.garrett@att.net or 251-599-4179

GSQA Meeting: The next GSQA Quarterly Meeting will be in July in Covington, LA on the Northshore of Lake Pontchartrain at Bogue Falaya Hall, 317 N. Jefferson Ave., Covington, LA 70433. Bonnie Johnson robojo2@aol.com. 251-421-1409

BOOK CLUB: BOOKCLUB is reading "Florabama Ladies Auxiliary Sewing Circle" by Lois Battle. Join us for lunch and discussion after the May 10 guild meeting. Thank you to Kathy Brooks for finding a fun read! Linda Flores 251-689-8573 lambflores@bellsouth.net

April 2022: President Notes

President's Notes May 2022

This guild is just the best! I'm so appreciative of how many of you showed up to support Bonnie and ACQG at the GSQA meeting. I don't have a final head count but I know there were at least 25 guild members there, quite a few of whom aren't GSQA members and were there just to represent our guild. So thank you to everyone involved – Bonnie Johnson for putting in so much work and being so organized with everything, Peggy Stone for organizing the food, the men who set everything up for us, everyone who donated food, money, or door prizes (we had 27 door prizes!), people who showed up to help Saturday, and those who just came to the meeting. I'm not kidding when I tell you that several people from other guilds came up to me and commented on what a friendly bunch of people we were, and how so many of our guild greeted them. I think we can all feel very proud of our guild. Thank you again Bonnie and everyone for a job well done!

It's time to be thinking about your guild challenge quilt. The theme is home and what home means to you. The quilt must have a heart somewhere in it and be no larger than 30" x 30", but otherwise can be any technique or style you want. For those of you who picked up the paint chips from last month's program, this would be a great way to combine two projects into one: do your guild challenge in the paint chip colors. Completed challenge quilts will be shown at the August luncheon, and we'll vote for viewer's choice then. Don't forget – the winners get prizes!

Our annual retreat is Aug 25-28th. Everyone always has a great time, and Susan Garrett puts a lot of work into making sure there are plenty of door prizes and other activities to keep the fun, food and friendships rolling, so I encourage you all to sign up – you deserve a retreat!

I'd like to say again how much I appreciate the way that all of you have really put effort into making the guild fun and vibrant again after the covid break: for coming to meetings and workshops, for helping with our other activities, and for being open to trying some new things. It has made being president enjoyable and rewarding, so thanks!

Programs VP Needed

Linda Flores is finishing her term as VP of Programs, so we'll be needing a replacement beginning in August. This person is responsible for scheduling the programs for our meetings and filling in for the president if they are absent. Programs can be presented by guild members, regional teachers/quilting related people or businesses, or national presenters (these can be done via Zoom if we can get the technology set up). There is a $4000-5000 annual budget to pay for presenter fees and travel expenses. This is a very important position within the guild - great programs are what bring people to meetings.

Please consider volunteering for this position!
Contact Susan Mogan with questions.

Library: The newest addition is "Pen Thread" written by Sarah Watson, who taught the embroidery workshop. It is filled with designs and includes a CD. Sarah kindly donated this book. Just a reminder, the library books are on our website by author, title, and category. Ann Hetrick 251-533-9365; annhetrick@comcast.net

Membership Report: At April's meeting, there were 57 members and 2 visitors present. Bennie Johnson 305-325-0609; bjoh283070@aol.com

Web Site: Those that have new information for the web site contact me by text or email. Peggy Stone 251-599-3180 spgstone770@bellsouth.net

QOV: We have been invited back to Humana on Airport Blvd. to begin stitching again as things are opening more fully. I have chosen 1st Tuesdays since we have most guild activities on Tuesdays. However, their room is already booked for May so we will stitch on Monday May 2 beginning at 10 am and then switch to Tuesdays for the foreseeable future. Bring a friend. We will have sewing you can do without your machine, putting labels on to quilts, stitching a binding, cutting, and pressing, as needed. Please plan to bring your QOV project and join us. Irons, rulers, mats, etc. will be available. Lunch nearby or bring your own. We will be able to stay until at least mid-afternoon if we would like to. In June we will move to Tuesdays so we will look for you on June 7th. All those interested in QOV will be welcomed. Please mark your calendars and plan to join us. Joyce Reed 251-454-1466.

Yearbook: If there are any corrections that need to be made to the current year book, please email me. susan.garrett@att.net

Night Guild: Night Guild met on April 21 at Christ United Methodist Church. We had 11 members present. Our program was making pillowcases to be used for upcoming Quilts of Valor presentations. 15 were completed and 2 are in process. Thanks to Elaine Williams and Bonnie Johnson for coordinating the project. Alan Farmer alan.farmer82@gmail.com 251-463-5398

BOOK CLUB: BOOKCLUB is reading "Florabama Ladies Auxiliary Sewing Circle" by Lois Battle. Join us for lunch and discussion after the May 10 guild meeting. Thank you to Kathy Brooks for finding a fun read! Linda Flores 251-689-8573 lambflores@bellsouth.net

ART QUILTERS: Art guild met with 12 members present. An upcoming Mobile Art Council show (September) is being planned. Show and Tell was interesting with the display of Art Guild projects, some completed, some not. This includes a "Slice Quilt" project of a Dauphin street block in downtown Mobile. Nancy Goodman continued her second month of teaching Improv piecing techniques. Art quilters will create their own version of an improvisational quilt using Nancy's lessons and examples. Peggy Knippenberg pknip2020@gmail.com 251-591-0805

GSQA IN ACTION WOW! What a wonderful turnout of ACQG members at the April Gulf States Quilting Association's Quarterly Meeting. Welcome our 2 new members Sandy Purvis and Susie Olsen. On Friday the Workshop with Judy Gauthier from Ripon, Wisconsin was AMAZING. Our scrappy quilters are now happy quilters!! Hope you have seen some of the results online and I hope some of the ladies bring their squares to the May meeting. More accolades in person. The next GSQA Quarterly Meeting will be in July in Covington, LA on the Northshore of Lake Pontchartrain at Bogue Falaya Hall, 317 N. Jefferson Ave., Covington, LA 70433. The Workshop teacher on Friday will be Kyra Reps. Oh, my! You've got to go to her website:

Quilting Tranquility. Talk about TALENT. Her love is long arm quilting and she has developed tools and a method of teaching DOT MANDALA quilts. Google: 10 Best Quilt Shops in Covington and Abita Springs. DON'T MISS IT! Bonnie Johnson robojo2@aol.com. 251-421-1409

Quilt Show: The quilt show needs a Publicity Chairman that will be guided by Carol Peterson. This position works by themselves way before the quilt show. No last minute completion dash! The quilt show Country Store needs two people to work with MaryAnn Logsdon and Lori Hickman. Most of the prep work was completed last year. Please notify MaryAnn (251-490-8317), Lori (251-401-0467), or Peggy Stone (251-599-3180).

Minutes: 4/12/2022 General Meeting

Welcome and Opening Remarks. Susan Mogan, President, Azalea City Quilters Guild, opened the monthly meeting at 10:00. She welcomed the Guild and any guests visiting this morning. Susan stated we need to remember our members and their families in our prayers. Special requests were made for Patsy Starkey, who will be having back surgery and for Debbie Vice and her family, Debbie's husband is fighting cancer.

Inspirational. Ashley Fleming spoke about how things come together one piece at a time. It is especially true about quilters. How quilters find peace by piecing together our quilts. She spoke about how Easter is a time for peace and hope and how Jesus greeted all with "Peace be with you". Jesus knows everything will work out in time in the way to his will. Ashley said a small prayer thanking the Lord for the peace we find every day.

Correction on the February Minutes. Susan Mogan stated that the part of the 2023 Quilt Show Budget was cut off in the Newsletter and she is considering that as part of the corrections to the March minutes. They will be reprinted in the April Newsletter. She asked if there were any other corrections to the March minutes. No other corrections were noted. Susie Olsen moved to accept the March 2022 minutes as written in the Newsletter with republishing the 2023 Quilt Show Budget as stated. Bonnie Johnson seconded the motion. There were no objections. The March minutes were passed as noted above.

Treasurer's Report. Susie Olsen read the Treasurer's Report for March 2022. A copy will be in the Nine Patch News.

General Announcements. The following announcements were made.

The Gulf States Quilters Association's quilt show was held on April 9 and 10 in Slidell, LA. ACQG had multiple individual who had quilts in that show. Susan asked everyone who had a quilt in the show to come up and "show" the quilt and state what award they received. ACQG had multiple ribbons awarded.

New ACQG Name Badge. Karen Gordon will be accepting requests for the new ACQG Name Badge, which was discussed at the March meeting. The new name badge was shown in the March Newsletter. The cost will be $11.00, and it will be voluntary if a member would like to replace the lanyard we are currently using. We are asking for cash only if you decide you would like one. Currently 32 members have already replaced or ordered a new name badge.

Night Guild. The ACQG Night Guild will be meeting this month on April 21. There was a conflict with another group, and they needed to change their meeting date. They will be meeting a Christ United Methodist Church on Grelot Road.

2021 Retreat Audit. Susan asked if anyone would like to volunteer to conduct an audit on the 2021 ACQG Retreat's Funds. A volunteer was not found as of the date of the meeting.. Meet & Greet. Three members were recognized during the April meeting.

They were: Pam Stevens. Pam has been a member of ACQG for 5 years and has been quilting for 5 years. Nina Clotfelter. Nina has no idea how long she has been in ACQG and has held multiple positions. She is currently the Workshop Chair. Janean McCawley. Jean is a "new" member of ACQG. She joined the Guild a year ago and has been quilting for 2 years.

Membership. Bennie Johnson, Vice President for Membership announced that we have 57 members present at the meeting today. There were 2 visitors today and both have joined the Guild.

By Laws and Standing Rules Approval. Susan Mogan explained that a committee worked on updating the By-Laws and Standing Rules for ACQG the past several months. They were presented to the Guild membership last month for review and were also sent to everyone on an email. Susan asked if there were any questions concerning the By-Laws and Standing Rules as they were sent for review. No one had any objections. She asked if we could get a motion to accept the new By-Laws and Standing Rules as written in the email sent to the Guild membership. Pegi Cromartie moved to accept the new By-Laws and Standing Rules as written. Susie Olsen seconded the motion. A vote was brought to the members present. There were objections. The By-Laws and Standing Rules passed. Susan Mogan stated that Bonnie Johnson has offered to have the Constitution and By-Laws of ACQG printed in hard copy for each member. This will be a donation from Bonnie to the Guild. She thanked Bonnie for her generous gift.

Guild Challenge. Janet Beaverstock spoke about the Guild Challenge for this year. She stated that the theme is "Home Is Where the Heart Is". If you decide to accept the challenge it will need to have a heart somewhere on it and be about home. This challenge should be no larger than 30 inches.

Programs. Linda Flores announced that the book club will not be meeting today after the meeting, due to the Applique Program Round Robin. Instead, they will meet Thursday (April 14) after the "Block Party" at the Maple Street Biscuit Company on Old Shell Road. The book they will be discussing is "Quilt City Murders" by Bruce Leonard. She announced that Kathy Brooks recommended next month's book, which will be "The Florabama Ladies' Auxiliary and Sewing Circle" by Lois Battle. Kathy will need to choose where the book club will have lunch for next month's discussion. Linda showed several donation quilts she finished using the "Strip Poker" Blocks made in the previous months. She asked if there was anyone who has a block or worked on this quilt to please come up and be recognized.

Today's program will be held right after this meeting. It will be held in the fellowship hall right after the meeting and will be in a "round robin" format. Several members have set up stations to show different applique techniques and groups will move from each station. Linda stated the next program will be the "Paint Chip Challenge". She gathered multiple groups of eight different color paint chips and passed them out to guild members who wanted to accept the challenge. Linda stated that the only thing you need to use is at least three of the eight colors in the paint chips you received. The quilt item can be any size. She wants your creativity. Your creation can be shown to the Guild in the next few months. There is no time limit. The paint chip challenge could also be used as part of the Guild Challenge Quilt.

Workshops. Nina Clotfelter announced the workshop for September with the Barbara Black workshop being sold out. She will be starting a waiting list for individuals. This month's workshop will be on April 19 with Sarah Watson. She will be showing us different embroidery techniques. Next month's workshop will be on free-motion quilting on a domestic sewing machine on May 11, 2022, at the Regency Church of Christ from 9:30 a. m. to 4:30 p. m. Nina decided to teach this workshop, since several members of ACQG has requested it from her. June workshop will be Andrew Lee, the "Combat Quilter". This is the workshop which was rescheduled from March. It will be held directly after the June meeting and the cost is $10.00. Susan Mogan thanked Nina for the terrific job she is doing on getting the workshops going again. Susan also asked the members is anyone would be interested in getting a workshop on using a walking foot for quilting and if they are interested to raise their hands. Several members rose their hands. Susan stated she would look into finding an instructor for the workshop and check out the cost.

2023 Quilt Show. Peggy Stone stated the dates for the 2023 Quilt Show were set. The dates are May 12 and 13, 2023. She stated several members asked if we could increase the number of judged quilts for the show to 300 quilts from the 200 quilts that is already budgeted for. Peggy explained about the cost of the judge and how they would have to pay for another day if we did increase the number of judged quilts. A discussion was held between Peggy and members present at the meeting. No decision was made about increasing the number of judged quilts. As stated earlier in the meeting, the 2023 Quilt Show Budget was not shown in it entirely in the March Newsletter. A complete copy was emailed to the members of ACQG for review and approval. A motion was made to accept the 2023 Quilt

Show Budget as shown in the email by Ann Hetrick and Janet Beaverstock seconded the motion. A vote was put to the members, and it passed as stated.

Gulf States Quilters Association (GSQA). Bonnie Johnson stated she was very pleased with the basket of fat quarters that was a door prize at the GSQA Quilt Show last weekend. She stated it was so heavy from all the material that she needed help to lift it to the table. A woman from New Orleans won the basket. She talked about the GSQA Quarterly Meeting and Workshop that would be held here in Mobile on April 22 & 23. Bonnie thanked everyone who will be helping with the GSQA Workshop next week and asked them to stay after the meeting for a quick meeting on what to do.

Retreat. Susan Garret announced sign ups this year's retreat and that the cost has gone up. The retreat is scheduled for August 25 thru 28 at Camp Beckwith on Weeks Bay. Meal cost for anyone requesting special meals (vegetarian/glutton free) will be additional $3.00. The deadline for payment will be August 9. She explained what people have done in the past bringing food for Thursday, the "Secret Quilters" Bags and the door prizes. If you have any questions about the Retreat, you can contact her.

Facebook/Emails. Susan Garret spoke to the floor about the Facebook page and how some inappropriate posts have been made on the page. She stated she found the post after someone told her about it. Susan removed the post from our page. She asked everyone to send her a message if they see something inappropriate of the Facebook page. She will find it and remove it from the page. Susan stated individuals are still responding back to the ACQG Email and not the individual's email address when they are answering a request. Please remember to change the email address to your response to the individual whose information is in the body of the request. If you hit reply, instead of changing the email address, your response will go to the ACQG email and not to the individual who need your answer. Susan then must forward it to the appropriate person in their request.

Semmes Heritage Days. Ann Singleton spoke about the Semmes Heritage Day, which is scheduled for May 7, 2023. She stated that she still needs some quilts to be displayed in the chapel for that day and some people to volunteer to stay a few hours at the chapel to talk about the quilts. If you are interested in helping or showing a quilt, please contact her.

Ways and Means (Un-birthday gifts). Sharon Morris stated five un-birthday gifts were received for this month's birthdays. A total of $96.00 was raised for ACQG. The winners of today's gifts were Susan Garret, Diane Engels, Betty Todd, Karen Gordon, and Nancy Williams.

Quilts of Valor. Joyce Reed was unable to attend the meeting and asked Karen Gordon to speak for her. Joyce is asking for volunteers to work at the Veteran's Blue Star Salute at the Battleship Park on May 21 from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m. She would like someone to show how to make a QOV block, someone to do some handwork (binding/ sewing labels) and someone to explain what QOV is. If you are interested, please contact Joyce Reed.

Library. Susan Mogan spoke about the display of the library books that were in the foyer prior to the meeting and how we have several new books in the Library. She encouraged everyone to check it out for ideas and resource materials.

Exchange Blocks. Georgia McCain stated that she has seven quilt tops to give away for the House Exchange Blocks. The next exchange block will be "Bonnie's Tulips" and she showed what it looked like. She stated she already sold out (over 60 blocks) for this exchange block, but she will have more at the next meeting. The winners for the House Exchange blocks were Terry Jenkins, Ann Singleton, Alma Moates, Tia Bourke, Susan Mogan, Jane-an McCawley and Sandy Purvis.

Show & Tell. Individuals who were in the GSQA Show showed their award-winning quilts and multiple individuals also showed the quilts they made.

Meeting Adjournment. Susan Mogan asked there was any other business that needed to be address. No one stated anything. She adjourned the meeting at 1150 for the members to attend the applique program being held in the Fellowship Hall.
