April 2023
Volume 45, Issue 8

Upcoming Programs: Pam Stephens 251-604-8484

Hi ladies! I know we are all excited and overwhelmed in preparation for the Quilt Show. Our program for April will be Show-n-tell of our 'Small Boxes' project for Children's Quilts. I look forward to seeing your creativity. No program in May. In June, I'd like to do a 'Round Robin' demonstration of the many ways to make Flying Geese. In July, our own Susan Mogan will do a trunk show of her beautiful quilts. I know you'll love that. August will be our luncheon and new Officers Installation.

Workshops: Nina Clotfelter 251-377-5523

April 18

Come make this fun new quilt while learning how to use your XL Stripology ruler!

April 2023 President's Notes

Spring is here, so I hope you can get out and enjoy some sunshine and low humidity days after all the rain and overcast skies we seem to have had so far. I'm thrilled to say we have a nominating committee in place: Alice Cornelison, Nina Clotfelter, and Mary Jo Datema will be working to pull together a slate of officers for the next guild year. And I'm even more thrilled to say that we've had three people volunteer to fill officer positions already, so we only need someone to fill VP of Programs and Secretary. I truly am grateful to have volunteers, so thank you to all these ladies. Please consider filling either the Programs or Secretary position. I can honestly say I've really enjoyed my time as guild president. Being more involved in helping shape the guild going forward and getting to know so many more people in the guild has been very rewarding. Don't feel like you have to be a long-time member in order to be an officer, either - new people bring a fresh perspective that is good for the guild. Feel free to contact me with any questions about either of the officer positions.

April is the month to finish getting your quilts ready for the quilt show, along with items for the Boutique and the Country Store. Please remember that every quilt for the show needs a hanging sleeve on it, so if you need help with making/attaching those, or with bindings or labels, come to the April workshop. Also remember to sign up at the April meeting to help set up the show and work during the show. We really need lots of help to pull off such a big endeavor. Contact Candy Snipes or committee chairpersons to sign up, or to ask about specific committees that need help.

If you turned in an entry form for a quilt and you realize you're not going to be able to finish it after all, April 29th is the deadline to withdraw a quilt from the show. Late withdrawals don't leave the hanging committee time to change the plan, and we end up with "holes" in our display.

Nancy Goodman tells me we have 246 quilts entered in the show, so that plus our special exhibits is going to be a great showing of quilts. I can't wait to see them all. Good luck finishing up all your quilts, and I'm looking forward to seeing them at the show. Happy quilting, Susan

The abc's of ACQG

ART QUILTERS GROUP: The Art Quilters are finishing the butterfly project and will be beginning an awesome totem pole project as well as a color-of-the-year project. Come join us!

Susan Mogan

BOOK CLUB: A large group met for lunch at Jason's deli after the March guild meeting! Lots of pleasant company. Some left as we got ready to discuss "After the Storm". The book chosen for April is: "The Goodbye Quilt" by Susan Wiggs. All are invited to lunch and book discussion, if interested. Hope you read past your bedtime! Linda Flores 251-689-8573 lambflores@bellsouth.net

EMAILS: If you want an email sent to the guild, please send to ACQG2018@yahoo.com Susan.garrett@att.net or call 251-599-4179.

EXCHANGE BLOCKS: So excited about giving Mosaic Star Blocks. Had a wonderful degree of participation and the blocks are beautiful. If you haven't turned your blocks in, I will take them at April guild meeting. Please complete any that you have and return them. Thanks to everyone who participated.

Winners of the blocks will have beautiful quilts. The exchange block for April- August is called Autumn Falling Leaves. The kit will have the background fabric plus the fabric for the stem. Colors for the block should be green, golden yellow, rusty orange and dark red. The blocks can be a solid color or several shades of the color. I've made one example and have included a picture with the article. The cost of the blocks is $2 each or 3 for $5.

MACHINE PIECING CLASS: Machine piecing class will meet on Wednesday, April 5, 2023 from 1 PM to 4 PM at Spring Hill Baptist Church, second floor of the Activities center. Thanks, MaryAnn Logsdon. 251-649-4682. malogsdon1@gmail.com

Night Guild : Night Guild met Thursday, March 16th at Christ United Methodist Church. This was one of our service months, so Diane Engels put together kits for us to put together for CAC/Linus. 11 members were in attendance. Nancy Goodman came to pick up applications for the Quilt show and answer any questions. We will meet again on Thursday, April 13th at Christ United Methodist Church. Alan Farmer 251-463-5398 alan.farmer82@gmail.com

Off Year Opportunity Quilt: Opportunity Quilt for 2024 is still in the works and will be ready August 2023.

Quilts of Valor: It is almost that time again. Our dues for QOV are due in May. If you are new to QOV then click the Join Us tab at the top of the webpage - QOVF.org - and follow directions to join QOV for a mere $10 per year. If you are a returning member use your log in and password to go to the Member Dashboard and look for Update Profile on the upper left of the page under your membership data. From there you will simply renew your dues for $10 a year. If for some reason that does not work, let me know and I can mail the dues for everyone right after the May general meeting. These dues are not mandatory for volunteers, but do help national to function with only 3-4 paid employees, offering liability insurance for all of our events, free publicity brochures, free training on their website, maintaining our private bank account, and lots of activities such as block drives, the "Walk, Run, Block 5k" fundraiser, mystery challenges, monthly quilt alongs, free patterns, etc.

If you see Linda Flores be sure and thank her for the many dozens of quilts she has quilted for us in the last 3-4 years. Many months she took 4-6 tops and backs and had them ready prior to the next meeting. She has been very dedicated to our cause and we hate to see her leave.

I do have 2 rolls of Hobbs 80/20 batting which are available for FREE to someone(s) who would offer to quilt one or two tops per month for us until the rolls are gone. Our typical size is 60" x 80". It is now costing $12+ to mail one quilt off to be quilted and $15+ to mail 2 tops off depending on distance mailed. And unless things have changed since Linda came it is a 2-3 month wait for national to pair us up with a longarm to do one or two quilts at a time. There are not enough longarmers nationally to keep up with the demand so any help locally is greatly appreciated by all. Please see Joyce Reed if you can volunteer to do an occasional quilt for us. All you need is time, thread and a longarm machine. I will even purchase thread for you, if you need it - you just tell me what brand, weight and color you need. Top, batting, and backing will be provided. Joyce Reed lsubookworm@hotmail.com 251-454-1466

Resolutions: Resolutions. All cards should be turned in by now. I will accept email this month. Yvonne Taylor Happyquilter247@aol.com

Welcome and Opening Remarks. Susan Mogan, President, Azalea City Quilter's Guild welcomed all members and visitors to the March 2023 meeting. She welcomed Sue Filipowicz back. This was Sue's first meeting since she broke her arm. Susan stated we need to remember Bonnie Johnson, who will be having a hip replaced and Ramona Thompson's husband in our prayers. She asked if there were any prayer requests. A request for prayer for Anne Godwin was made. Anne will be having cataract surgery tomorrow morning.

Inspiration. Ashley Fleming read an amusing article about a woman getting ready for her guild's kaleidoscope workshop. The article went on about how this woman kept on putting off getting her supplies and her reasons why. The day before the workshop, she still didn't have the correct material, so she used some fabric from her stash that was not what the workshop called for. It spoke about once the workshop came on how she forgot to bring the equipment she was suppose to bring and how she needed to borrow everyone's equipment. The last thing the women stated was how she loves workshops and how she can't wait for the next one. Ashley stated that this woman sounded a lot like her getting ready for a workshop. Ashley said a prayer for everyone who is in need.

Special Presentation of Donation Quilts Project Linus. Diane Engels presented over 40 children's quilts to Pam Pulley from Project Linus. Pam thanked everyone for the work the Guild does in making these quilts and who they are given to – the children at USA Women's and Children's Hospital here in Mobile, AL and local fire and police department. The quilts given to the fire and police departments are kept in their vehicles. If they come across a child in need of comfort they have a quilt to give the child. She stated she has a brochure with more information on Project Linus if anyone would like one. She also stated a Facebook page – ProjectLinusMobileAL is also available with more information.

Corrections for the November's Minutes. Susan Mogan asked if there were any corrections to the February 2023 minutes. No corrections were noted. Pegi Cromartie motioned to accept the February minutes. Susie Olsen seconded the motion. A vote was taken and there were no objections. The February minutes were approved.

General Announcements – Susan Mogan made the following announcements:

Thank You Letter from Child Advocacy Center. Susan read a thank you letter from the Child Advocacy Center for the 40 quilts and the $500 given to the CAC at last month's meeting.

May Meeting Date Changed. The monthly meeting scheduled in May will be moved to May 2 due to the Quilt Show.

Pensacola Quilt Show. The quilters' guild in Pensacola will be having their quilt show this weekend and she is encouraging everyone to attend. We need to show our support to the other guilds in the area.

Nominating Committee for the July Elections. We are still looking for three volunteers to be the Nominating Committee for the upcoming elections of new officers in July. Susan stated that she does not want to go asking individuals to "volunteer" for that committee, but she will if she does not get anyone to volunteer. She also stated that if you are on the Nominating Committee you can not run for an office. Currently we need to find candidates for the office of President, Vice President of Membership, Secretary, and Treasurer.

Treasurer Report. Susie Olsen read the Treasurer's Report. A copy will be filed and published in the March Nine Patch Newsletter.

Membership Report. Bennie Johnson, Vice President of Membership, announced we have 71 members and 2 visitors at today's meeting. One of the visitors requested to join the Guild also this morning.

Azalea City Quilter's Cookbook. Bonnie Johnson announced that the cookbook is in final editing right now. There were 41 individuals who submitted recipes for the cookbook. It will be over 129 pages with 2 to 4 recipes per page. Eight of our past workshop teachers also submitted recipes, along with their favorite quilt square to be included in the book. The cost will be $15.00 each and it will be revealed at the quilt show in May.

Workshops. Nina Clotfelter, Workshop Chair, stated at the workshop next week on March 21, Susan Mogan will be teaching how to make and sew with paper piecing patterns. This workshop will be held at the Regency Church of Christ starting at 9:30 a. m. It is sold out and there is a waiting list. If anyone has signed up for this workshop and can not attend it, to let her know and she will be able to give someone to take their place. The April Workshop will be focusing on getting our quilts ready for the Quilt Show in May. It will be focusing on sewing sleeves onto the quilts for displaying them; how to finish binding the quilts; and how to make and sew labels on the quilts. It will be taught by several members of ACQG who have shown quilts in various shows through out the country. The cost will be $5.00, which is go to the Guild. The May workshop will be on May 16 at 9:30 a. m. and will be held at Regency Church of Christ. This workshop will be making a tote bag. Nina showed the tote that will be made.

Education. MaryAnn Logsdon stated that the machine piecing class will be meeting on April 5 at Springhill Baptist Church.

Quilt Show. Peggy Stone stated the Quilt Show is going fine and everything is looking good.

Quilt Withdrawal Date. A Quilt Withdrawal Date will be set for April 29. This date is for individuals who submitted a quilt to be shown at the Quilt Show and could not finish it. This is necessary to allow the judging committee, and hanging committee know how many quilts could be expected. If you can not finish your quilt by that date you will need to notify Nancy Goodman about pulling your quilt from the show.

Items for the "Quilt Kits". Items to make quilt kits are still needed. We are asking everyone to check their stash to see if they can donate material to make quilt kits to be sold at the Unique Boutique.

Items for the Unique Boutique. Sandy Purvis is still collecting items to be sold at the Unique Boutique. Peggy explained what items are needed and explained that all money from the sales of these items is going to the Guild. That individuals should not put a price too high as to not have the items sold. We do not want any items not being sold due to being overpriced. We need to remember that we are trying to make a profit for the Guild and not how much we would normally sell it for.

Scrap Scramble. Items being donated for the Scrap Scramble should be brought to Abba Shrine during the set up for the show. We do not have the space to store everything given. They are asking for good size scraps, not something that should go into the animal beds. Cut items, such as ½ Square Triangles and blocks are also welcome. These smaller pieces should be grouped together in a plastic bag. Do not just leave them single. These items will be placed in a play pen at the Quilt Show and sold by the bag. People can search through the play pen for any scraps they can use and buy them.

Vendors. Peggy stated she has contacted all vendors and they are turning in their paperwork to set up at the Quilt Show. She also stated we will have a vendor who will be sharpening scissors at this show. He will do only scissors, including pinking shears. He will only be sharpening scissors, no knives.

Country Store. The Country Store is still looking for donations.

Hospitality Committee. This year a Hospitality Room will be set up for the individuals working on the Quilt Show. It was determined that it takes too long to go and find something to eat and return to the show for both the workers and vendors, so this room will be set up with food and drinks. It will be available Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday. A menu is already planned. We are looking for volunteers to help run this area to help with supplying food from the planned menu. If you are interested to please check with Yvonne Taylor.

Volunteers. Candy Snipes is working on a spreadsheet to help with the sign-up with the volunteers for the quilt show. If you are interested in volunteering for the show, please contact her. She will be able to tell you where help is needed. She was set up earlier today for sign ups and she will be signing up more volunteers next month. Volunteers are still needed for judging. If you are interested in helping Nancy with judging, please contact her.

Quilt Appraisals. Alma Moates will be available at the show to get your quilt appraised. There will be a cost for the appraisal.

Susan Mogan reminded everyone that the Monthly Guild Meeting for May will be moved to May 2 due to the Quilt Show. She also recognized Pegi Cromartie for all the hard work she is doing for the Quilt Show. Pegi has volunteered to be the Quilt Show Treasurer and she is also doing all the publicity for the show. She has contacted countless places to get the Quilt Show advertised and has been doing a great job at both jobs.

Donation Quilts. Diane Engels thanked everyone who has been making donation quilts again. She explained the difference between what a donation quilt for the Child Advocacy Center is and what a “Linus” quilt is. She spoke about how they are two different types of quilts. If a quilter tells her the quilt she made is a “Linus” quilt that she will insure it is given to Project Linus. Project Linus’ quilts goes to the children at USA Women’s and Children’s Hospital and how Project Linus is a nationwide origination. Project Linus receives quilts and blankets from various other organizations throughout the city. They may be from individuals who knit or crochet blankets or from someone who is not a member of ACQG and just make quilts for Project Linus. If a quilter states the quilt is a donation quilt for the Child Advocacy Center, then it goes to the Child Advocacy Center here in Mobile, AL. We are the only organization that makes quilts for the Child Advocacy Center. If someone gives Diane a quilt and does not designate whether to give it to Project Linus or the Child Advocacy Center, she divides them up equally between the two organizations.

Exchange Blocks. Georgia McCain stated that this quarter’s block is doing well. She had one more kit to sell if anyone wanted it. She stated that the blocks will be given away at next month’s meeting.

Gulf States Quilter’s Association. Robbie McHardy stated that the GSQA Seminar was held in Baton Rouge, LA last weekend and it was great.

Quilts of Valor. Joyce Reed was not available at the meeting, she asked Sue Mogan to speak about Quilts of Valor. Sue stated they had a successful 4-H Sew Day last month with over a dozen quilters from ACQG volunteering. They completed enough blocks to make three or more quilts. Quilts of Valor will be presenting two quilts this weekend, and counting the 17 quilts that Sassy Stitchers given in November, the Stars Over Mobile Chapter of Quilts of Valor has given away 51 quilts since August. One of the quilts that will be given away this weekend will be going to a 101 year old World War II veteran.

Programs. Pam Stevens stated she has a group project for the guild to work on the next couple of months. She explained she found a group of “I Spy” squares and thought it would be a fun project to work on. She explained she has approximately 90 of these square and she would like individuals to take them and make a 12 ½ block using these “I Spy” squares as the center. Each individual will add to them using their own fabric, making each block different. The blocks will be due in June and later the Guild will have a “Sew Day” to make donation quilts from the blocks. Pam passed the “I Spy” centers out at the meeting and all of them were taken by different people.

Ways & Means. Sharon Morris announced we had five un-birthday gifts this month and made $119.00. The winners of the un-birthday gifts were Alice Cornelson, Pat Hagler, Susan Webster, Rose Nelson, and Betty Todd.

Show & Tell. Quilts and other items were shown at Show & Tell. Photos were taken and are being posted on the ACQG Facebook page for anyone interested in seeing them.

Final Remarks and Adjournment. Susan Mogan asked if there was any other business that needed to be address. No one stated anything. The meeting was adjourned at 11:30 p. m.

Unique Boutique

Thank you to all who have so generously donated items to the Unique Boutique booth. Remember, each member is encouraged to donate items worth at least $15 or a monetary donation of $15. Everything has been logged in and priced to date.

April 11th meeting will be the deadline to turn items in. ALSO, we are in need of volunteers to work 2 1/2 hour shifts Friday and Saturday during the quilt show. It's a fun booth to work. Please contact Candy Snipes and pick your shift.

"We are also collecting items of fabric & patterns for Quilt Kits, if you have any that you won't be using."

Thanks to all.

Susie Olsen, 251-510-1361

Country Store

The Country Store is where we sell used items of all kinds, kind of like a big yard sale. Items do not have to be quilt related. In January, the Country Store started collecting items from the members. Ladies this is a good time for an early Spring Cleaning. Bring to the meetings or contact Mary Ann Logsdon (251-490-8317) or Lori Hickman. (251-401-0467)

Scrap Basket Play Pen:

Donate your scraps to the scrap basket, which is a play pen filled with all kinds of scraps. Customers are given a bag and they can purchase as many scraps as they can fit into the bag for one low price. It's been really popular in the past, and we need everyone's scraps to make this successful. Please don't bring any scraps smaller than about 6", unless they are contained in a plastic baggie - for example, you could bring a baggie full of 2 1/2" squares, or a bundle of 2 1/2" strips. Contact Yvonne Taylor for information. 251-422-1795

ALSO, Small Wall Hangings

We also sell small wall hanging style quilts, so if you have any that you would like to donate please contact Yvonne Taylor. Many of these are in the 12-24" size range, but can be larger.

Dates to Remember:

Monday, May 8

Week of the show, bring finished quilts to Abba Temple Shrine.

According to the Bylaws:

Unique Boutique: Each member is responsible to contribute $15 or homemade items that have a value of $15.

Opportunity Quilt: Each member is required to purchase at least one book of tickets.

Opportunity Quilt Tickets

"A Time To Bloom Again"

Opportunity Quilt Tickets are available with the quilt display in the lobby before our meetings. A book of 12 with a $10 donation. According to our bylaws, each member is required to purchase at least one book of tickets.

Tickets can also be purchased through the Mobile Art Council website. Go to this link:

www.mobilearts.org/quilts2023

Quilt Kits

We'll be selling quilt kits for people to purchase, so please go through your stash and see if you can put together most of what would be needed for someone to make a quilt. For example, a pattern along with fabrics for the main design to where they would only need to supply the background fabric themselves. Unused yardage, jelly rolls, charm packs, layer cakes, and fat quarters all work great for this. You can include a pattern that you purchased, but due to copyright laws it must be the original pattern - no copies. These kits could be QOV, baby quilts, wall hangings, Alabama or Auburn related, etc. Candy Snipes will be packaging these up into plastic bags, so turn in to her or Peggy Stone.

April 29: Withdrawal Date

The withdrawal date for the show will be April 29th. Withdrawal means if there is no way the quilt will be completed on turn in date of May 8th. This will help the judging and hanging committees complete the jobs with less last minute changes.

VOLUNTEER: Most shifts are 2 hours

Members, please sign up at the April meeting to help with show set up and to work during the show. Candy Snipes will be at the sign-in table with sign-up sheets for each area. We need lots of volunteers in the following areas:

During quilt take-in and show set up:

Judging (take in quilts on Mon, assist with judging Tues-Thurs, assist with quilt return Sat evening),

Hospitality (providing meals for set-up workers Tues-Thurs),

Hanging (help place quilts in proper location, hang quilts on rods with hooks. We really need men to help in this area climbing the big ladders!)

During the show itself (Friday and Sat):

Docents (helping guests during the show with directions and answering their questions, showing the backs of quilts as requested)

People to work in the following areas:

Admissions, Baskets, Country Store, Boutique, Sit and Sew
